

Appaloosa Youth Foundation Scholarship Application Information

The Appaloosa Youth Foundation awards scholarships to outstanding youth members of the Appaloosa Horse Club or Appaloosa Youth Association wishing to pursue higher education. Scholarships are awarded annually, with the entire amount paid to the school's financial office of the College/University that the student will be attending. Awards are paid at the beginning of the student's first semester, are non-transferable from the recipient and must be used within one year. Each Applicant may only enter in one of the three categories, and completed applications must be received in the ApHC office no later than June 1.

NO EXCEPTIONS WILL BE GRANTED

I. Territory Scholarship

Awards of up to $1,000 each may be awarded to one graduating High School Senior in each one of the six territories. One Scholarship may be awarded to a student graduating from a foreign school with a comparable system. "At-Large" scholarships may also be awarded, at random, in this category

II. Continuing Education Scholarship

This $1,000 scholarship may be available to one college student who will be attending college in the fall of 2011 with a first or second semester sophomore standing. This applicant must have maintained a GPA of at least 2.5, or higher on a 4.0 scale, or a 3.8, or higher on a 6.0 scale during their freshman year in college.

III. Sagebrush Circuit Lew & Jo Eklund Scholarship

One $2,000 scholarship may be awarded to a college junior, senior, or graduate student pursuing a DEGREE in an EQUINE-RELATED field. The student must be currently maintaining a G.P.A. of 3.5 or higher on a 4.0 scale or 5.2 or higher on a 6.0 scale.

AYF Eligibility and Criteria for Scholarship Applicants

Eligibility

Each applicant must be a current member of the Appaloosa Horse Club or the Appaloosa Youth Association to be eligible to apply for an Appaloosa Youth Foundation scholarship. Students who are in the immediate family of an employee, representative, or national director of the ApHC or the AYF are not eligible to apply.

Criteria

Each application is carefully reviewed by a qualified panel of educators selected by the Appaloosa Youth Foundation. Scores are based upon scholastic aptitude, leadership potential, the ability to communicate community and civic responsibility, and financial need content and presentation. Evidence of involvement in the Appaloosa industry along with general knowledge of and accomplishments in horsemanship are also considered. Scoring is done in the following categories:

- *Scholarship
- *Presentation/following all instructions
- *Essay
- *Demonstrated financial need
- *Extra-curricular/civic activities

Because of the degree of competition and difficulty of acquired skills that are represented, it is to each applicant's advantage to submit a neat, readable, timely and informative application adhering to the rules and specifications of the application.

The AYF reserves the right to vary the number of scholarships awarded based upon the quality of the entries as scored by the judges, and the funds available.**
