

Hi to all my Appaloosa friends!!!

This is Callaway, and I wanted to stop in and say hello! I have been travelling since my concert with you guys in Jackson. I finally made it back to Nashville and to my surprise there was a great pillow and note from Appaloosa there waiting for me! Thanks so much!!

Thank you too for all the love and support I received from you while you were in Jackson this summer. I have been travelling throughout MS and even as far as Japan, so I have been gone for awhile. It was a great summer. I am heading this week to Los Angeles, where I am auditioning for a couple of things, and where I am doing some music sessions. Wish me luck!!

Especially, thank you for the silver buckle....it has a special spot on my desk and I love it! Everyone picks it up and drools over it! lol

We finally got the short video up of the concert on YouTube. Go there and type in:
CALLAWAY IN MISSISSIPPI COLISEUM

Some of you might recognize yourself on it!!

Anyway, I had better get back to packing. I would love to hear from any of you if you get a minute.

Email me at: callaymac@aol.com . I will keep you posted about what happens in Los Angeles, and also on how my new book, "Rowdy Meets The Big Apple" is coming. I have some photos of some great Appaloosas this summer that will be in it.

Good luck with all your wonderful, beautiful horses and with all your amazing riding skills. Can't wait to hear from ya'll....

much love,
Callaway
